Hear what the industry said about Big 5 Construct Ethiopia 2026

This event offers valuable insight into industry needs and creates real opportunities for collaboration, particularly with international companies looking to invest. There's a strong sense of growth and innovation here, and it's clear that this market is evolving quickly.

Gennaro Pugliano
Engineer, Fondazione ITS Biotecnologie - Visitor

Events like this are incredibly important they create a space for knowledge sharing, collaboration, and exposure to new ideas and global expertise. It's a crucial opportunity for the industry to learn, adapt, and grow. Everyone should attend to gain insights, build networks, and bring innovation back to their own countries.

Dr. Mekonnen Tibebu Chekol
Deputy Bureau Head, Housing Development Stream - Addis Ababa Housing Development - Speaker

What makes this event stand out is its scale, exposure, and the quality of connections it enables. It's a key space for building brand awareness and ensuring that when people think of your company, they associate it with strong industry solutions.

Overall, the event is delivering real value in terms of visibility, engagement, and business conversations, and we look forward to continuing to participate in future editions.

Khalid Ahmad Malik
Business Development Director, Scaffco FZCO - Exhibitor

The event is especially important because it brings together a wide range of industries—construction, manufacturing, and technology—creating the perfect environment for collaboration. It allows us to connect with developers and partners who are building the physical infrastructure, while we support them with the digital layer needed to make cities smarter.

Tewodros Hailemeskel
